FOREIGN PROPERTY REPORTING ORGANIZER

If you check any of the boxes below, you may have an obligation to file an information return with the CRA. If you require assistance in answering these questions, please contact our office so that we may determine if you have any reporting obligations and, if so, what information must be reported.

There are severe penalties for failing to comply with these foreign reporting rules.

- G Did you at any time in 2006 own or have an interest in specified foreign property with a cost totalling more than $100,000 (CDN)? Funds held in a foreign bank account, shares of a foreign corporation held in either Canadian or foreign accounts and foreign rental property are some common examples. The due date for form T1135 is the same date as the taxpayer's regular income tax return.
- G Did you at any time transfer or lend any property to a foreign trust? The due date for form T1141 is the same date as the taxpayer's regular income tax return.
- G Did you at any time in 2006 receive distributions or obtain a loan from a foreign trust? The due date for form T1142 is the same date as the taxpayer's regular income tax return.
- G Did you, or you together with family members, have a 10% (or more) interest in a non-resident corporation or trust? The due date for forms T1134A and T1134B is 15 months after the taxpayer's regular income tax return.
- G In the course of your business during 2006, did you have transactions in excess of $1 million with non-arm's length, non-resident persons? The due date for form T106 is the same date as the taxpayer's regular income tax return.

If you have an obligation to file an information return, please complete the Declaration with respect to Foreign Assets on page 6.
